Time to go back to beer school Eugene Brewpub Tour

September 29th-October 1st, 2012

The third annual brewpub tour, a fundraiser for the Susan C. Petrey Clarion Scholarship, is ready to go. This year we head South to Eugene, Oregon to explore the great brewpubs at the height of the hop harvest. Here is what to expect.

Transportation is via a comfortable coach with plenty of room for luggage. The tour will leave from McMenamin's Kennedy School in Portland at 10AM on Saturday September 29th.* We will be a small group of only 10-16 people so be sure to reserve your spot soon.

- We head to Silverton where we lunch at Seven Brides Brewing.
- Our next stop is Albany and Calapooia Brewing.
- Arriving in Eugene in the late afternoon, we'll make a stop at one of the out-lying breweries for a quick tasting.
- Accommodations will be at the Eugene Hilton Hotel, conveniently located in the heart of the city center.
- The evening will be spent dining and exploring the local brewpubs.
- The following morning will start with a leisurely departure time. We'll travel the back roads to reach Flat Tail Brewing in Corvallis just in time for lunch.
- The highlight of the afternoon will be a trip to Chatoe Rogue where the Hop & Heritage Festival will be in full swing. We take a tour of the micro hopyard, visit the tasting room, and get sworn in as citizens of Rogue Nation.
- Our final evening will be spent at the incredible McMenamin's Kennedy school. It first opened in 1915 as an elementary school, now boasts 35 guestrooms fashioned from former classrooms (complete with original chalkboards and cloakrooms, private baths and telephones), a restaurant, multiple small bars, a movie theater, soaking pool, gift shop and a brewery.
- Monday, after sleeping off the offerings of the previous evening, you are free to explore the area further or make your way home.

*Itinerary subject to change.
